- Our pricing model is based on usage and it correlates more with the number of users. Annual subscription includes the usage of Agendo for the Molecular Imaging Platform, with all included. Should IBMB decide to expand the usage of Agendo to other facilities and not increase the number of active users, the price increase will be marginal. However, if necessary, we are open to negotiate a fixed value for the annuity of IBMB that will cover these fluctuations.
- Setup fee includes database setup, testing, staff training and users training.
- For other customised features, the programming time is 50€/hour.
- All data generated in Agendo belongs to IBMB, and CKLO can provide all the data on demand. In case of bankruptcy or cessation of activity from CKLO, Agendo's code will be given to IBMB.
